

Western Washington
Medical Group

Position: Nurse Practitioner (ARNP) or Physician Assistant (PA)

Seeking an ARNP or PA - Endocrinology

Western Washington Medical Group is seeking a Nurse Practitioner (ARNP) or Physician Assistant (PA) with Endocrinology experience and clinical interest to join our 2 MD Endocrinology practice, part of Western Washington Medical Group; a robust multi-specialty group of 100+ providers. The ideal candidate will have 2+ years practice experience, and thrive in a busy practice working as a team with physicians and clinical staff to deliver top quality care to our patients.

Western Washington Medical Group is an independent, provider-owned multi-specialty group with a vision to provide personalized, collaborative, high quality care. We are board-certified/board-eligible providers in most specialties and primary care.

Location: Based out of our Mukilteo location, but there may be need for travel, and/or telehealth.

We are located on Puget Sound, 25-minutes from Seattle, nestled between the ocean and the rugged, snow-capped peaks of the Cascade Mountains. Snohomish County is one of the fastest growing regions of the country! This area of the Pacific Northwest is particularly attractive for raising a family, offering a wide variety of world-class cultural activities, easy access to beautiful outdoors environments, and excellent school systems.

Professionally, WWMG is a collegial group of specialists and primary care providers who support physician interests and autonomy.

We offer a competitive salary, excellent benefits, and the ability to work within a very collaborative environment of primary care and specialty providers.

If you are interested in this Endocrinology opportunity practice within an independent multi-specialty group, please send your resume to Joe Smecker at jsmecker@wwmedgroup.com.

Job Type: Full-time
