

Western Washington Medical Group

Primary Care Provider – MD, DO, ARNP, or PA – Full Time

Date: 2/7/24

Location: Everett, Marysville, or Arlington

We are currently searching for full-time Primary Care Providers to join our family medicine practices in Everett, Marysville, or Arlington, WA. We are hiring for multiple positions: MD, DO, ARNP, and PA candidates welcome to apply. We are open to traditional PCPs, as well as providers with a professional interest and/or specialization in men's health or pain management. Schedule is Monday – Friday, no weekends.

We are seeking experienced family medicine providers to join our growing team of highly regarded providers and support staff. Physician, Physician Assistant, and Nurse Practitioner applicants welcome. As a member of Western Washington Medical Group, we combine the familiarity of a small family practice with the support of a large, established, well-respected healthcare organization. We are a locally owned, passionate group of providers who love serving our community and offering the exceptional level of care that keeps our patients coming back.

Our staff not only enjoys full benefits and professional growth opportunities, but also an environment noted for diversity, community involvement, intellectual excitement, and collaboration.

Summary

We are hiring new providers at Everett Family Medicine, Marysville Family Medicine, and Whitehorse Family Medicine. Each full-time position provides a competitive salary (DOE), full benefits, 401k, profit-sharing, flexible scheduling, the opportunity to see your patients independently, and build your own practice within a practice. No hospital or OB duty required. Whether you simply want to see your patients and build your panel, or also have an interest in provider-level clinical leadership, working at WWMG could be the perfect opportunity to advance your medical career.
