Medical Group

Interventional Cardiologist – Full-Time

Date: February 12, 2026

Location: Everett, WA (Greater Seattle Metropolitan Area)

Western Washington Medical Group (WWMG) is recruiting for an Interventional Cardiologist. The ideal candidate is board-eligible or board-certified in both general and interventional cardiology. Excellent communication skills, and the ability to work well in a team environment are essential. Training in vascular ultrasound and nuclear cardiology is appreciated but not required.

Interventional call is very reasonable at 1:5. Occasional (1-2 times per month) evening general cardiology call is also expected. We use Epic EMR for hospital and outpatient care. Compensation ranges from $600,000 up to $800,000 per year, based on education, training, and experience.

WWMG is a physician-owned and operated multi-specialty group based in Everett, Washington. We have over 90 medical providers consisting of primary care, most medical subspecialties, and select surgical subspecialties. The Cardiology care center has 8 academically trained cardiologists. This includes 4 non-invasive cardiologists, 3 interventional cardiologists, 1 electrophysiologist, and 3 APPs.

All our cath lab procedures and in-patient care are done at Providence Regional Medical Center in Everett. Procedures include complex high-risk PCIs, peripheral interventions, and structural procedures including TAVR, Watchman, and ASD/PFO closures. Our EP service offers high-level ablation procedures, device implants, and lead extractions.

We also have an active out-patient heart failure program that includes remote-patient monitoring, APC support, and CardioMEMS implants. Our outpatient cardiac imaging center is IAC accredited and performs the full array of echo, nuclear, and vascular studies.

Everett is located in beautiful Puget Sound. The office is 25 minutes north of Seattle. Activities such as skiing, hiking, boating, and city life are easily accessed by car. Excellent school districts, culture, and entertainment are nearby. Many physicians live locally as well as in Seattle.
